Subject: My train journey

Hi Ali,

At the moment, I'm at Cairo station with my father. We're taking the sleeper train to Aswan tonight. He has a meeting there tomorrow and he has asked me to go with him. The train leaves at seven o'clock. There are a lot of other people who are waiting too, so the train is going to be busy.

Dear Omar

I got your mail last night but I was too tired to write back. You were complaining that you can't prepare well for your exams. Here are few tips that will help you do better in your exams. First, you should plan your time for the exams. Make a timetable of the exams you have and how many days you must study for them. You may want to give some exams more study time than others, so you must decide early. You can also use charts and diagrams to revise your lessons. Visuals help you remember better. They help you find relations among different parts or lessons. You should also have a study routine that works for you. I recommend also that you eat healthy food like fish, yoghurt and fruit for a better memory. You can also study with friends if you like studying with others. You may have questions that they know their answers. You should agree on a certain time to finish studying your lessons and stay focused on the topic. Finally, you should take regular breaks to help you remember better.

Yours, Aser.
